CiSAP Workshop 2015
Yonsei University, Seoul Korea
December 12, 2015
<http://icadl2015.org/cisap/>

CiSAP is the Consortium of information Schools in Asia-Pacific (CiSAP) which was launched at 2008. Information schools are rapidly gaining a global recognition and the information schools community is expanding in our region. Library and Information Science is a crucial subject area in the community. Computer Science, Business Administration, Health Informatics, and so on are also important areas for information schools.

In previous years, CiSAP has sponsored the international workshop on global collaboration of information schools (WIS) at ICADL. The WIS focused on a collaboration of information schools in the global community. The workshop included a research forum, roundtable discussion and information sharing toward the future of information schools in the Asia-Pacific region.

This year, we have decided to reform the workshop to the CiSAP workshop. The CiSAP workshop 2015 focus on research activities in information schools. In the workshop, we expect to exchange research idea, explore our activities, share information, discuss about research collaboration. We welcome both CiSAP members and non-CiSAP members; researchers and students in information schools and related schools and anyone who are interested in information school activities.

The workshop consists of a student session and a general session. We encourage students to submit research papers, the positioning paper would be fine. All submissions will be reviewed by the CiSAP workshop 2015 committee for presentation.

Submissions:

- Papers should be about 1200 words in length.
- We recommend the use of the LNCS template.
- Submissions should be name to the ICADL page for EasyChair (please select CiSAP Track). The submission site will open June 1, 2015.

Note: Please note whether you are a student in EasyChair.

Important Dates:

- Submission deadline: September 22, 2015
- Notification of acceptance: October 1, 2015
- Workshop date: December 12, 2015

CiSAP annual meeting will take place right after the CiSAP workshop 2014. All participants of the workshop are welcome to attend the CiSAP annual meeting. Central topics of the annual meeting will be the activities and organization policy for the future.
